A LITTLE ABOUT THE HOUSE

Enjoy the character of this 300-year-old Georgian Country House, offering six double ensuite bedrooms and a generous family room. From grand four-poster beds to bespoke decor, every room is uniquely furnished to ensure a super-comfy, one-of-a-kind stay.

Find your sanctuary in the main house, where the quiet Library, an elegant sixteen-seat formal Dining Room, and an antique-filled Drawing Room create a beautiful balance of comfort and tradition.

Whenever you are ready to turn up the fun, step into the Coach House Wing. Built for socialising, this laid-back hub has everything you need: gather around the huge oak dining table, pull a pint at your private bar, catch a film on the supersized screen, or challenge your friends to pool and darts.

Open the doors to the sunny BBQ courtyard terrace, or cozy up inside by the wood-burning fireplaces. After a long country stroll, there's nothing better than a soak in the large hot-tub overlooking the horse paddocks.

When it's time to rest, the estate's six beautifully appointed ensuite bedrooms offer the ultimate countryside slumber. Individually styled with a nod to the property's 300-year history, each room pairs period elegance with deep, luxurious comfort and peaceful views over the grounds. Wake up refreshed to the gentle rhythms of the Bride Valley.
