A LITTLE ABOUT THE HOUSE

Enjoy the character of this 300-year-old Georgian Country House, offering six double ensuite bedrooms and a generous family room. From grand four-poster beds to bespoke decor, every room is uniquely furnished to ensure a super-comfy, one-of-a-kind stay.

Find your sanctuary in the main house, where the quiet Library, an elegant sixteen-seat formal Dining Room, and an antique-filled Drawing Room create a beautiful balance of comfort and tradition.

Whenever you are ready to turn up the fun, step into the Coach House Wing. Built for socialising, this laid-back hub has everything you need: gather around the huge oak dining table, pull a pint at your private bar, catch a film on the supersized screen, or challenge your friends to pool and darts.

Open the doors to the sunny BBQ courtyard terrace, or cozy up inside by the wood-burning fireplaces. After a long country stroll, there's nothing better than a soak in the large hot-tub overlooking the horse paddocks.

When it's time to rest, the estate's six beautifully appointed ensuite bedrooms offer the ultimate countryside slumber. Individually styled with a nod to the property's 300-year history, each room pairs period elegance with deep, luxurious comfort and peaceful views over the grounds. Wake up refreshed to the gentle rhythms of the Bride Valley.

ENJOY CURATED DAYS OUT

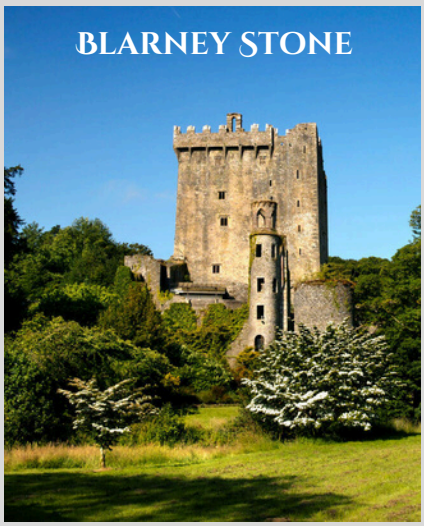

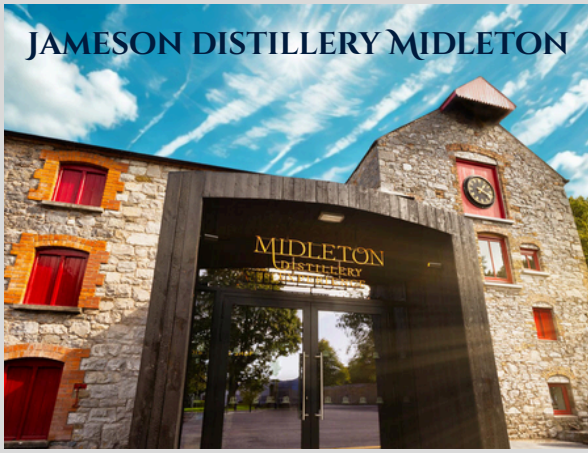

OUT & ABOUT

Our aim is to ensure Lisnabrin guests feel at home and can sit back and relax whilst enjoying everything that this amazing part of Ireland has to offer. This East Cork area is home to the dramatic Blackwater River and Bride Valley with the back drop of rolling hills and lush green fields.
